*Patient Portal Messages & Other Communication

If asynchronous medical communication via Patient Portal, etc. takes nurse practitioner time (involves medical decision-making and takes 5 or more minutes of my time in back and forth communication over a 7-day timeframe), I may bill you or your insurance. If you are not OK with possibly being billed for asynchronous communication, please schedule follow-up telemedicine video visits for ALL care including medication refills or changes, lab result review, evaluation, advice, referrals, letters, and other requests.
